REASON FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an examiner’s statement of reason for allowance:

The cited prior art taken alone or in combination fail to teach, in combination with the other claimed limitations, a computer monitor for monitoring execution of software products on a computer, the monitoring comprising: a reducer that contemporaneously condenses and converts data records reflecting the execution of the load modules to data records which reflect usage of products on the computer, as recited in independent claims 1 and 20.

The cited prior art taken alone or in combination fail to teach, in combination with the other claimed limitations, a computer monitor for monitoring execution of software products on a computer, the monitoring comprising: a reducer that condenses and converts data records reflecting the execution of software products on the computer substantially only by reference to the entry-gate load modules stored in a table, as recited in independent claims 37 and 42.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
